

The Da'luk

Coming Soon to Eureka the Wiyot Tribal Youth & Elder Cultural, Social & Educational Center

Marnie Atkins

For many years the Tribe has been working to open a Cultural Education center in Eureka the center of Wiyot aboriginal territory. The dream is just beginning to come together. Thanks to an Indian Community Development Block Grant the Tribe is in the final phase of closing a deal to purchase the old Restoration Hardware building in Eureka. The building located in the heart of Old Town Eureka adjacent to the Gazebo is within walking distance of the Eureka Boardwalk which looks out upon Tuluwat Island (of which the tribe owns more than 270 acres) Northern California Indian Development Council, and California Indian Legal Services. The primary purpose of the center will be to perpetuate Wiyot traditional arts, culture, language in order to carry them on to the next generation. The Secondary purpose is to educate the general public about the history of the Tribe, and promote an understanding of the unique rights, roles and responsibilities of the Tribe. The center will eventually be filled with displays and exhibits, host lectures, cultural presentations as well as interactive classes.

Coming back to develop and manage the Center is former Council woman and Cultural Director Marnie Atkins. Marnie Atkins, a Wiyot tribal member, served on tribal council in the early 2000's and worked as the Tribes Tribal Historic Preservation Officer, Language Coordinator and eventually Cultural Director. She left the Tribe to continue her education and that she did, having completed her Bachelor of Arts in Native American Studies and continuing on to earn a Masters degree in Native Language Teaching Specialization, and a second Masters degree in Cultural Anthropology. Marnie worked with former Cultural Director Tom Torma to develop the Cultural Center Concept and wrote the job description for this position back in 2015. While we are unsure of the exact date that the purchase of the building will close (we hope the end of August) or how long it will take to open the doors, we hope it will be soon. We have been slowly progressing (over the course of many years) through the steps to make this dream a reality.

Our culture is a living spirit that must continue to thrive. Our generation must carry on with the traditional ways and the stories from our elders and ancestors that have gone before us.

The Cultural Department continues to work with the local government agencies on projects that come in daily. The Cultural Department is planning a lot of activities for the youth for this summer. The cultural department continues to hope and pray that everyone stays safe through these difficult times

The Cultural is happy to inform our community that we just about got all supplies to start dress making and as well as dresses for dolls for the youth once we have everything the cultural department along with the youth program will be holding a virtual class on dress making and regalia. . Once the shelter in place is lifted, we will be able to hold cultural classes.

Departments:

The language department:

check out the Wiyot webpage under the language section for the Rou Soulatlouy page. The language page also has words that you can hear or even scan with a bar code reader on your phone. Learn a new word a week. Remember that language is important to the Wiyot Culture.

Tsek Houdagh Youth Program:

Tsek Houdagh has been doing a great job in making sure our youth is getting meals delivered to them during this difficult time.
