

Reminder: Help us complete our Soulatluk conversation book!

Lynnika is working on a book of short conversations in Soulatluk for the Wiyot community to practice using Soulatluk in daily life. You can check out the project at <http://www.wiyot.us/336/Rou-Soulatlouy-conversation-book-project> (or scan the QR code).

WE NEED WIYOT VOICES FOR THE BOOK!

Contact Lynnika (lynnika@wiyot.us) if you would like to narrate part of the book in return for an honorarium. We will coach you on pronunciation, give you lots of practice, & edit out any mistakes!

"Rou Soulatlouy" Wiyot Conversation Book Project

The Wiyot Tribe has received a 2-year grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Services to create a Wiyot Conversation Book.

We are calling the project "Rou Soulatlouy", which means "we all speak Wiyot".

COVID-19 UPDATE: Due to the COVID-19 health crisis and the Wiyot Tribe's shelter-in-place order, Rou Soulatlouy meetings will not be held until further notice. Contact Lynnika at lynnika@wiyot.us if you would like to be added to our mailing list for Wiyot conversation materials, or if you are interested in suggesting conversation topics or otherwise participating remotely while we weather this crisis and maintain social/physical distancing. If you would like to meet via Skype, contact Lynnika to set up a time. We can purchase a limited number of webcams for tribal members who have internet at home & would like to hold occasional virtual workshops! We will continue to work on the topics that have been proposed so far, and will post updated materials on the Rou Soulatlouy project page (link above) and on the Tribe's Facebook page. Thank you for your patience, and be well/stay safe!
